Concessions Are Signed

Student Body Will Present
Two Stage Performances in the Auditorium

Plans for the Spardi Gras Carnival to be held here April 21, are now complete, each group on campus having handed in a list of concessions which it plans to handle.

The Spardi Gras Carnival is to open at 12 noon and will last until the next morning. Full faculty co-operation has been extended, and classes are to be expected at noon in order that the students may enjoy an afternoon of merrymaking, relieved from the worries of the class room.

Three Dances

During the carnival there are to be three dances. One of them will open the day, at noon, another will close the day, lasting from 11 to 1, while there will be a third dance in the tennis courts from 8 to 11.

The Student Body is presenting a show in the auditorium, with two performances, one in the afternoon at three o'clock, and the other at six-thirty. Chester Hess is in charge of these shows, and Ephraim Engleman has been asked to act as master of ceremonies.

The Spartan Senate is also giving a minstrel show, with performances at two and five. Joel Carter is in charge. A continuous musical show will be given in room 24 during the whole carnival.

Bum's Free Feed

At six o'clock the bum's feed, which has been a feature of every Spardi Gras, will be held. At this time, free beans, bread and coffee will be passed out to all who appear in the official garb of the day, rags. A popcorn and peanut stand has been procured from Franco's and will be in the Quad all day in addition to the other food concessions. (Those handling food aside from those which have been announced are: Cake and coffee, by the Spartan Spears under Rae Dobbins; hot dogs and hamburgers by the Y. M. C. A. with Bill Jones, Harry Hawes, and Hubert Staffebach in charge, and Spanish food by the Circulo Cervantes with Art Wagner in charge.)

Forty Concessions

There are to be forty concessions in all running throughout the day. In the main these are to be centered in the Quad, with a main ticket booth in the center of the Quad for all of them, in charge of Bud Applegarth. Those

Plans for La Torre Stage Presentation Near Completion

Editorial Staff Promises
Unusual Show for Annual Event

An enthusiastic, energetic and clever La Torre staff have plans very much under way for one of the most original Year Book events in the history of San Jose State publications. This is the result of an undaunted Editor-in-chief and her working crew—finances will not hold this book of 1933 back. When there's a way there's a way—and so it is with pleasure that the La Torre workmen are backing their slogan of—"A Bigger and Better La Torre for 1933"—with a program to be seen from the Little Theatre stage on the evening of April 26th.

Letters are being sent to the six societies: Allenian, Ero Sophian, Sappho, Beta Gamma Chi, Phi Kappa Pi, and Kappa Kappa Sigma, and the outstanding co-ed organizations on the campus, such as Black Masque, A. W. S., W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., in which a plan involves of their co-operation and assistance will be absolutely necessary for the success of this undertaking. A call to arms! Will there be any one organization called who will BACK the Spartan Spirit, the initiative, and the will power to respond?

What is the program to be? What part will organizations play in it? Will it be safe to miss the La Torre evening on the 26th of this month? Answers will be published in full, and with details, in Tuesday's edition of the "Times." Arise to the clarion call—Onward.

Entire College Prepares For Gala Evening At Student Loan Fund Dance Saturday In Men's Gym

Times Circulation Swells To 9000 Copies; Samples Mailed Alumni, Parents

Seven thousand extra copies of the "Times" mailed out to alumni and parents in two days! This was the remarkable record set by the Commerce Department in co-operation with the "Times" staff in mailing out the copies asking for the support of all concerned in the interests of the State Colleges of California.

The Commerce students have been working for two days typing addresses of various people, and the "Times" staff, under the leadership of Dick Sanders, business manager, have turned one of the club rooms of the campus into a veritable newspaper office, with papers, printed labels, glue, etc., spread all over the place.

It is hoped that after all the extra money spent, and the labor involved by these members of the student body, the other students of school will do their bit by writing to their representatives, or have the parents do it. Remember, if this bill passes, it will probably mean that we, as students, will have to pay a higher tuition rate, in addition to having to come to school and try to learn under unfavorable conditions because of the lack of faculty members. In other words, it may mean that some of the faculty must be let out in order to help make up the extreme budget slash.

Special Meeting to Clarify Budget Slash Planned for Uninformed Students at Noon Today in Quad

For the benefit of those students who do not thoroughly understand the meaning of the proposed budget slash of State, a special meeting will be held today from 12:30 until 1:00 o'clock in the Quad to discuss the problem.

The meeting will be opened by Dr. MacQuarrie, who will speak on the situation as it now is. Leon Warmke, student body president, will expound on "What Is To Be Done."

Few students in school realize just what this bill means to the general welfare of faculty and parents alike. If the proposed bill passes it means that our college will probably be forced to take a 36 per cent slash in the budget, which means that the tuition fees of all students will probably be raised to help make up the money lost through appropriations.

The special meeting called for today was arranged for by the College Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and Spartan Senate.

All students of school are urgently requested to be at this special mass meeting, but still more important, they are asked to please write a letter to their local representatives at Sacramento, urging the defeat of this very unfair bill.

Stanford Frosh Debaters Meet Locals, April 17

A solution to the present economic crisis will be offered by San Jose State Frosh in a debate against the Stanford Frosh at 4:00 o'clock in the Quad.

"Resolved: That the Principles of Technocracy Offer a Solution To the Present Problem," is the subject for the verbal tilt between the two colleges.

San Jose State will be ably represented in the affirmative of the resolution by Tom Needham, Bob Threlkel, and Adrian Wilbur of the Freshman class.

Merchants Offer Awards

Today Is Last Opportunity To Purchase Tickets
at Reduced Rates

Today is the last day to purchase your tickets for the Loan Fund dance at 25 cents a piece. After this evening at six o'clock, the admission price will be 35 cents. The price is very small in comparison to the colossal dance that is being planned at the Men's Gym Saturday evening, and all those who fail to attend will be sorry in several ways. The primary reason for staging the dance is to enlarge the very small Student Loan Fund, in order that many students who are now contemplating dropping school will have the opportunity to continue. Merchants throughout the city have co-operated wholeheartedly by donating valuable prizes as an added attraction.

Here are a few of the prizes that will be given: Women's riding boots from Bloom's; a golfing set from the San Jose Hardware; an $8.00 fountain pen from the Co-Op; a tennis racquet from Pickles' Sport Shop; and merchandise from Pavley's Studio, the Army and Navy Department Store, J. S. Williams, and Norris' Silk House.

Sammy Ziegler's popular ten-piece orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. This in itself should insure an excellent time for all those attending.

Si Simoni and his committee have been working for over two weeks in preparation of the largest dance of the current school year, and a large crowd is expected to turn out to support such a worthy cause, and have a ripping time.

Annual A Capella Choir Will Be Presented on Next Wednesday Night

The A Capella Choir will present its annual concert on Wednesday evening, April 19, at 8:20 p. m., in the Morris Dailey auditorium. The concert will be free to the public.

Frank Triena, who has been concert master of State's Symphony orchestra for several quarters, will be the assisting soloist. He is prominent in the musical affairs of the city, and is a pupil of Kathleen Parlow, concert artist and pedagogue of world fame.

Educational Standard Must Be Maintained

A chain can be no stronger than its weakest link. A state can attain no standard higher than the level of its component parts. Intelligent self-interest demands that educational needs shall not be sacrificed simply because the exigencies of the moment seem to render such a procedure convenient.

In addition to your general desire that the intellectual and cultural plane of the State of California be maintained, you all have direct, vital, personal interest in the prevention of any rise in the present tuitional rates, which, although low, represent for many the maximum burden bearable. Sooner or later, every one of you would be more or less seriously affected should the catastrophe of an increase of fees occur. A successful attack on educational necessities is not a tragedy to be rectified in a minute. Years of diligent struggle for an intelligent school system can be nullified in a day. Years are required to regain the lost position.

Don't let a lack of appreciation of the vital importance of immediate action cost a drastic curtailment of San Jose State's educational program.

Write, today, a personal, frank, friendly letter to your legislators in Sacramento.

DEAN McDOWELL GUEST SPEAKER AT FROSH MEET ON THURSDAY MORNING

Dean A. R. McDowell of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in San Francisco, one of the most important dental schools on the Coast, was the guest speaker at Freshman Orientation Thursday. Dean McDowell has addressed student groups in many of the colleges of California, and his illustrated talk on viewpoints of dentistry was greatly appreciated by an interested audience.

In a clear, forceful manner the speaker traced the development of an individual's teeth from infancy to old age, pointing out the danger of decay due to negligence. Through an illustration, Dean McDowell demonstrated that facial expressions resulting from teeth formation show diversification of interests in life. He explained that a grouch employs 30 facial muscles, while a smile uses only five, therefore behooving us to smile often.

An interesting illustration showed George Washington's set of artificial teeth, which are now in a Boston museum. Then followed a modern set of false teeth, reproducing nature as much as possible.

Showing the structure of a single tooth, Dean McDowell impressed upon his audience the necessity of proper dental care, adding that beer bottle openers and nut crackers have a purpose for which teeth are not intended.

Next Thursday, April 20, Frank Goveillo and Adah Mae Rhoads will conduct a student body program at which Leon Warmke will be the speaker. All Freshmen are expected to attend.

Beginning April 27 the new officers will present a series of entertaining Orientation programs.

Stanford Hills Will Be Destination of Hikers

Another hike will be traveled Sunday, April 16, over the Stanford hills to Searsville Lake for a swim. Members of the hiking club of San Jose will join those from the Sierra Club in Palo Alto. Bob Bowman will lead the students from here.

This hike is quite short, and the rest of the time will be spent in swimming if you bring your own suit, and also in other sports. Twenty-five cents will be charged for the swim.

It is urged that more professors go on these hikes, because they will surely have a good time. Students want them to come and share in the fun.

It has not been decided when they are leaving, but all persons interested are asked to watch the bulletin board in front of the Co-Op book store.

Bring your own lunch and if you have a car or cars gasoline will be bought for it by those who are going.

Everybody come who can possibly spare the time, and those of you who can't, just come anyway. Bigger and better hikes.

Loan Fund Receives 107 Dollars from Capers

With the Fifth Annual Co-Ed Capers a thing of the past and $107 of the proceeds of the show already deposited in the Student Loan Fund, the Associated Women Students wish to thank all students who participated.

"In behalf of the A. W. S. and Marha Vayseckel I wish to express my appreciation of the splendid co-operation shown on the part of the sororities and societies taking part in the show."

"From what I have been hearing, '2033 or Bust' was quite a show, which goes to show what hard work can do."

"I wish to thank Allenian, Beta Gamma Chi, Bel Canto, Black Masque, Ero Sophians, Kappa Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa Pi, Sappho, Skylight Club, Smock 'n Tam, Spartan Knights, Spartan Spears, W. A. A., and the Y. W. C. A."

"I also wish to thank George Brokaw for taking charge of the lights; Katherine Hodges and her staff for so capably taking charge of stage work; Mr. Stillwell for being so patient and particularly for removing the unsightly extra platform; Neil Thomas for so capably taking charge of the proceeds; Dr. Kaucher for the clever speech; and the many students

Nature Study School Announces Plans for 1933 Summer Sessions

The West Coast School of Nature Study is announcing its outdoor school for 1933 in the High Sierra Sequoia National Park, from June 18 to 28, ten full days. For this course, three units of college credit will be given.

This school is one phase of the Nature Study services made available by the Natural Science department of San Jose State Teachers' College. It is designed to make use of the great outdoors as a working laboratory. The Sequoia National Park offers an unexcelled variety of good conditions, many forest trees, including the famous big trees, mountain meadows, a great wealth of plant and animal life, Mount Whitney, Kern River Canyon, Kaweah Peaks, Moro Park, and numerous lakes and waterfalls.

The staff is made up of Fred E. Buss, M. A.; Carl D. Duncan, Ph. D.; Karl S. Hazeltine, Ph. D.; P. Victor Peterson, Ph. D.; Gayle B. Pickwell, Ph. D.; Emily Smith, A. B. Others will be appointed.

Students will be kept moving, as breakfast will be at seven o'clock, eight start on trails; two-thirty return to camp; five-thirty dinner; and seven o'clock evening sessions.

The total fee, including instruction, meals, lodgings for the ten days, $37.50 and up. Transportation is not included in this fee. Special return trip fare between Exeter and Sequoia National Park is $7.50. This rate applies only to students of the West Coast School of Nature Study.

Enrollment this year, as in former years, is limited in number. Attendance is not restricted to teachers; anyone interested in the out-of-doors is welcome. For further information write or see P. Victor Peterson, director.

Famous' Nursery Rhyme Is Changed by "Mac"

Mary and her little lamb has suddenly taken a masculine turn and now appears as "Mac and his little lambs!" Mac says that they, the six lambs and ewes which live out at Spartan Field, are his new lawnmower, which he can run, too.

These lambs, it seems, were lucky enough to be born at the wrong season to be good stew or chops or something; so the San Jose Meat Company consented to sell them to the College.

The other afternoon when Coach MacDonald was herding his flock across the pasture, the center of the track, one of the ewes made an awful fuss. Mac, thinking her simply stubborn or indisposed, continued. Finally she just stopped, refusing to walk another step. Perforce, Mac stopped too, and counting his flock, found that one of his little lambs was missing. Of course, as you've already guessed, it was the son of the "stubborn" one. She went back and found it just where she knew he was all the time.

PRINCIPALS URGED TO HELP STUDENTS REACH COLLEGE REQUIREMENT

Urging the Principals to assist students to meet college entrance requirements, Merton E. Hill of the University of California, gave the concluding address at the final session of the Secondary School Principals' convention Wednesday. Mr. Hill said farther that teachers should set themselves to the task of equipping young men and women with knowledge that will help them to solve their life problems.

Resolutions and committee reports were also given. One of the reports urged the principals to keep a personal record on which the professional growth of each teacher is recorded. It was also recommended that principals encourage the teachers in a variety of professional activities.

The nomination of officers concluded the business of the convention.

The delegates to the Secondary School Principals' convention met at the Sainte Claire Hotel at nine o'clock yesterday morning, from where they left to visit the United States naval air base.

They were escorted by State motorcycle police and met by special guides, who conducted the visitors on their tour of inspection.

Arrangements for the trip were made by John M. Silvey of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce.

Large Meal To Students

Bernhardt's Cafe, in an effort to not only enlarge trade, but in an effort to make a place that will appeal to the flat pocketbooks of San Jose State students, are this week trying out a new policy towards students.

So, every State student, identifying himself with a Student Body card, will be entitled to an extra large 25 cent lunch. The identification is necessary because it is desired that only State students participate in this benefit.

SAPPHO SOCIETY ENTERTAINED WITH UNUSUAL DINNER CAMPUS SORORITY

The Sappho Society entertained a delightful dinner held at the Jose Country Club last week. The long table seated the guests and the society members was beautifully decorated with spring flowers in many of the pastel shades, lavender predominating. Dancing was enjoyed during and after the dinner.

The second event in the Sappho rush season was a formal tea at the home of Miss Dorothy Butler, president; Janet Hughes, Lucrecia Martin, and Barbara Bruch. Mrs. Wilson, Helen Dimmick, and Miss Thomas poured.

The serving table was beautifully appointed, being spread with a lace cloth and a bouquet of colorful flowers for a centerpiece.

Regular Spring Meeting of Cenacle Momus Held

Last night Cenacle Momus held its first regular meeting of the spring quarter. It was decided that the society would back the "Vote Your Assemblymen" campaign to the utmost, and each member present wrote to his representative.

Plans for the coming months were discussed and several starting proposals came to light. These will be kept secret until the plans are completed, but it is rumored that they are going places!

Directors Jaderquist and Lubow, and President Lois Wool, together with the planning committee, are working hard to place the club on the social map.

I should appreciate it if the gentleman who appropriated my wallet last Thursday in Gym would mail me the personal items which were contained therein. Thanks a lot! DON McCASH.

Margaret Delano, B. Rose Announce Engagement

The announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Delano of the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Burton Rose, came as a delightful surprise to their many campus friends and to the fraternity brothers of Mr. Rose, the Sigma Gamma Omega's.

Both Miss Delano and Mr. Rose are members of this college, where he is a student in the English department.

Miss Delano's father was an engineer in Peru, where the family resided before coming to San Jose several years ago. Miss Delano received her early education in the schools of Peru.

The friends of the young couple join in wishing them joy.

The Sigma Gamma Omega fraternity entertained their rushers, at a smoker held at the De Anza Hotel, Wednesday evening, April 12th, at eight o'clock. (This is one of the many events of the fraternity's busy fall season. The next function on their calendar will be an evening of bridge and dancing at the De Anza this coming Tuesday evening. The president of the fraternity is Perry Stratton, who is being aided by rushing by the other members headed by Clarence White, rush captain.

The S. G. O.'s have had a very successful year, participating in campus and social activities. At the present time they are co-operating with plans for the Spardi Gras on the 21st of this month.

Mary Robinson Visiting San Jose State This Week

Mary Robinson, a former co-ed at State, and a remarkable art student, is visiting here this week. She has been enrolled in the Chouinard Art School in Los Angeles, which has a fine reputation in art circles.

When Miss Robinson left State two years ago to enroll at Chouinard, it was then predicted by the State Art department that she would be heard of in the art world. Mary Robinson is planning to remain in Los Angeles for two years more as a student. Ten art students of Chouinard have formed what they call their "Dames Club," and study together every evening, which is proving to be a very unique and novel plan.

Miss Robinson says that the best thing about her course of study is that she is able to pursue only the subjects which she is interested in. This is a perfect Utopia, indeed.

All of Miss Robinson's friends are delighted at having her back on the campus, even if it is only for a week.

GWEN INTERPRETS THE MODES

Sing a song of contrast for this year's styles! Last year the smart lady did not venture forth unless the hat matched the shoes, the gloves matched the bag, the bag matched the shoes, and they all matched the dress. But alas! All this is just a reminiscence of the distant past. Today the hat does not match the coat, the coat does not match the dress, the dress does not match the hat—and we call it contrast.

Allow me to shout that there is more to contrast than merely "not matching", however. We may wear a blue and white plaid straw hat, a blue coat and a white dress. The ensemble does not match, but there is a definite color harmony and that is the important thing.

If contrast to you is all important for attaining that certain "chic" and you really intend to enter this mad parade, I should suggest you make a vow before you make your choice. It may be something like this—"I, do hereby resolve to wear color combinations which consist of a large amount of one color, a medium amount of another, and a small amount of a third, and the colors shall range in value such as a large amount of a medium color, medium amount of dark color, and a small amount of light color, or in whichever proportions I may choose to wear them."

This applies to all your dresses, you know. Use it when you start buying evening gowns and sports wear, formal and informal, and it may prevent a bad temper and a furrowed brow.

Evening of la belle dame! As you desire her, so she enters in swirls and swirls of organdie. Organdie with embroidery, organdie with eyelets, organdie with checks, organdie with plaids! Organdie plain, organdie decorated. Organdie, organdie, organdie. GWEN.

Former State Students Declare Engagement

Of interest to college students is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Frances Hoyt to Mr. Ross McDonald, both former students at State.

Miss Hoyt was well known in the art circle of the college and was a member of Smock 'n Tam. Since completing her work here, she has been doing commercial art work.

Mr. McDonald was prominent in student affairs, and during his senior year was Duke of the Spartan Knights.

No date has been set for the wedding.

NOTICE

There will be no musical half-hour Friday, April 15. Next week the regular half-hour will be held from 12:30 until 1:00 o'clock.

Delta Theta Omega Plans Unique Rush Parties

Delta Theta Omega, one of the outstanding campus fraternities, under the leadership of their Grand Master, Charles Spaulding, are carrying out a different and clever series of rush parties for the fall season.

Plans are being made for a yachting party in the Golden Gate which will take place in several weeks. Russell Rankin and Hanlon Buttner, a past grand master, are in charge of this event.

Charlie Richards, holding the office of Master, is efficiently serving as rush chairman. Under the direction of these members several smokers have been held at the Hotel Sainte Claire.

The home of Charlie Richards will be the scene of a gay party next week. Dancing and clever acts give by the D. T. O. alumni, will be the diversion of the evening.

Phi Kappa Enjoys Pot Pourie Party Tuesday

The fall social season of the Phi Kappa Pi Society was brought to a delightful climax as a pot pourie party given at the beautiful country home of Miss Betty Foster, Tuesday evening, April 11th.

Spartan Trackmen Tangle With Fresno Tomorrow

Captain Doug Taylor Leads Twenty-Three Spartans Against Formidable Conference Champions in Bulldogs

Glenn Harper, Star Miler, May Be Lost to the Squad

With the odds against them, but a firm determination to make a fight of it every event of the way uppermost in their minds, Coach Erwin Blesh and some 23 tracksters will embark this afternoon for Fresno, where they will meet Coach Flint Hanner's formidable Fresno State Bulldogs tomorrow afternoon.

With some 50 of the 70 odd points which they amassed to sink the locals in dual competition last year reporting for duty, the well-balanced Fresno team is favored to take the locals into camp tomorrow, as well as retain the Conference title which they won last year, and which they will defend at Sacramento in May.

Taylor Right

Spartan hopes of engineering an upset were somewhat buoyed when Captain Doug Taylor announced, after a light workout on Wednesday, that he "never felt better in his life." The stellar Spartan leader showed signs of overwork in the Sacramento Relays last Saturday, and it was feared that he had "lost his edge." Four days of rest seem to have restored him to his former spirits, however, and he will once again attempt to capture the three first places that have been his in every dual meet so far this season. "The Greyhound," as he is known, has marks of 9.6 for the hundred, 21.6 for the 220, and 23 feet 5 inches for the broad jump this year. He will have plenty of competition in each of these events, however, as Fresno boasts men of equal calibre in Les Ayres, sprinter, and Floyd Wilson and Ellis Kennedy, broad jumpers.

Harper Doubtful

Hopes of San Jose making the mile interesting for Fresno's sensational milers, Hotchkiss and Robinson, faded slightly yesterday afternoon when Glenn Harper, one of the surest Spartan point gainers, remained bed-ridden with his temperature rising. Harper entered the Health Cottage earlier in the week with a slight cold, which was not expected to delay him more than a day, but things took a turn for the worse, and at the present writing it cannot be said for certain whether Harper will make the trip or not. If he does run he cannot be expected to turn in his usual performance.

Weak in Weights

Blesh's entries in the field events are weak. Frank Cunningham, in the javelin throw, is the only Spartan that can be banked on to take a first. Taylor has an outside chance of winning the broad jump. Fresno, with such performers as Walt Marty in

FRESHMAN TRACK TEAM MEETS PALO ALTO HIGH HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Coach Bill Hubbard's up and coming Freshman track team will come to their toughest hurdle this afternoon when the Palo Alto Vikings invade Spartan Field for a dual meet. Little is known of the visitors except that they hold a win over the Sequoia track and field men.

The prize event of the day will be the hundred yard dash, bringing together "Red" Provan of the Babes and Gain John, co-holders of the P. A. L. century mark at 10 flat. Anson Hayes, undefeated Freshman hurdle star may find his Nemesis in the two ace timber-toppers of Palo Alto, Jury and Kestly. The former won the P. A. L. high hurdle event last year and may pick Hayes in the high sticks. Kestly was runner-up to his team-mate in both hurdles and may press both men.

Hansen and Blamer are the best weight men that the Vikings have to offer, the former doing 115 feet with the platter, and the latter 42 feet with the shot. Both marks compare favorably with Frosh records, and the two Vikings may break into the point column. Watson should have no trouble in the pole vault and broad jump, the Easterner being far ahead of the field in both events. Woods, best Paly representative of 1932, is now running for the Spartans and should take the 880. Paly is weak in the middle distances and the mile and the Frosh should pile up a few points here.

The relay should be a thrilling event, with a possibility of Johns and Provan hooking up in the final lap.

Spartan Tennis Team Meets Menlo Jaysee Here This Afternoon

This afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, the San Jose State tennis team will meet the Menlo Junior College squad on the college courts in what should be a set-up for the locals. [The matches will consist of six singles and three doubles.

Due to last Saturday's impressive showing against the San Francisco State team, the Spartans should have no trouble defeating the Menlo team.

Following is the line-up for this afternoon's meet:

Singles: Denny, Murdock, Goodell, Rea, Breuer, Naas.
Doubles: Murdock - Goodell, Breuer-Naas, Denny-Rea.

The fact that Glenn Harper has been confined to the Health Cottage all week with a cold is not helping the chances of the locals against Fresno any. Blesh says that if his middle distance ace runs at all, it will not be more than one race.

San Jose Mermen in Intercollegiate Swimming Carnival

Leading Central California Colleges Will Be Represented

Coach Charles Walker

[Tomorrow morning and afternoon at Encina pool, Stanford, mermen of Stanford, California, San Jose State, Santa Clara, and Saint Mary's will compete in the first annual California Intercollegiate swimming championships. This meet is the brain child of the assistant swimming coach at Stanford, N. E. Thornton.

The Stanford team, by reason of its decisive victory in the Southern division meet, is favored to win. Ted Wiget, intercollegiate 440 yard champion, and Clark, coast champ in the 200 yard breast stroke, will be among the main attractions at the meet.

The Spartan contingent of ten men is not expected to make much of a splash, but there are at least three of Sparta's warriors that are liable to cause a distinct ripple. They are Houser, Holt, and Draper, who, with anything like decent breaks, are likely to pull a surprise.

Houser will tackle Clark in the breast stroke, but the Stanford ace will attempt to crack the record in the event in the trials, and if he does he will not swim in the finals, which gives the local ace a chance to win.

Holt has, by his latest performances, proved that he is in fine condition, and a win for him in the diving would not be too much of a surprise for those who have seen him in action.

Draper is another who will have to buck the ever-present Clark in the medley swim. Clark has signified his intention of trying for the mark in that event also, but he will have to contend with Draper first, and that is no small contention either.

This loan fund dance tomorrow night promises to be the big affair of the quarter. It is rumored that part of the proceeds will be held over for the broken-down athletes—many of them need it. Dario Simoni has gotten together a group of representatives to be at the gathering, including Ernie Nevers and "Clipper" Smith. Also, the football seen near the library, bearing the signatures of the great and near-great pigskin heroes of Sparta, will be given to some lucky person. The athletes of State will be out in full force, and credit must be given Simoni for putting this dance over in a big way.
